University Information Sheet

Part A:

A.1- Brief description of your university: (The University of Monastir (UM) was founded in 2004 and it comprises currently two sites located in two regions Monastir and Mahdia. As a multidisciplinary university, UM offers a wide range of courses at undergraduate and postgraduate’s level: 2049 lecturers, 974 administrative and around 28189 students (fundamental sciences (3935), engineering (4831), computing sciences (3688), medical, paramedical and pharmaceutical science (6542), biological science and biotechnology (2245), economical and management science (2883), languish and humanity (2370) art and design (1695)).

About 1% of the total student population is foreign.

The university of Monastir has taken part in numerous and successful transnational partnerships and projects within and outside of North Africa (177 Bilateral projects, and 10 Network project, 98 universities conventions and 2 Co-diplomation convention).

The University with accredited research structures (15 Laboratories, 78 unities and 4 doctoral schools) and with more than 1016 (2011/2012) involved in doctorates offers to the region the third pole of research in Tunisia.

The international relations office has a good experience in managing programs of exchanges within bilateral agreements. This office takes care of the management of the international agreements with universities and organizations and contracts dealing with scientific collaboration, projects of development and exchanges of students and professors

This openness to the international dimension of our university is illustrated by its cooperation policy regarding education and research and by its significant effort in the implementation of mobility projects for students, academic staff and researchers.

The University of Monastir has a long tradition of international cooperation:

- 81universities conventions,
- 2 Co-diplomation conventions and
- 299 agreements for a joint doctoral research thesis, these are in Europe, American continent, African continent and Asiatic continent.).
